

DIRECTIONS FROM JUAN SANTAMARIA INTERNATIONAL AIRPORT TO GAIA HOTEL & RESERVE

- When leaving the airport take the main highway (Pan American Highway #1) towards San Ramon.
- After driving approximately 8 miles (13km) take the exit on the right with signs for Atenas, Orotina and Jaco. At the end of the exit ramp, turn left and go over the bridge.
- After 1.8 miles (3 km) look for the church on the left side and take a left after a soccer field heading to Turrucares.
- Drive 2 miles (3.2km) to get to the new highway. Once you see the highway do not go under the tunnel, take a left and drive (via a parallel road to the highway) to the East until you reach a rotary. Once in the rotary take the first exit to the right to get on the highway heading to the West to Atenas, Orotina, Jacó.
- Once on the highway drive for 16.5 miles (27km) or until you pass through two tollbooths. After the second tollbooth take the first exit right with signs for Jaco.
- After passing under the highway bridge you are now on route 34, from there Manuel Antonio is 67 miles distance. Follow the signs to Jaco, Parrita, and Quepos. You will pass over the Tarcoles river or crocodile bridge.
- Continue driving; follow the signs to Jaco, Parrita, Quepos.
- In Parrita you have to pass through the town, and keep on the main road following the signs to Quepos, Manuel Antonio.
- You will see a Gas Station on your left; from there continue straight until you will reach a one lane small bridge.
- Just after the bridge, the road will look like it is splitting, stay to the left.
- Drive moderate slow speed and go straight approximately 4 blocks and then make a left on the corner of a small park, at this point you will see signs pointing the route to Manuel Antonio National Park.
- As you climb the very steep and curvy road, you will pass a shopping plaza called Plaza Yara on your left and Gaia is located less than 50 yards further, also on the left.
